Psalm 27:1 (CEB)

The Lord is my light and my salvation. Should I fear anyone? The Lord is a fortress protecting my life. Should I be frightened of anything?

Psalm 27:1

The Lord is my light and my salvation—whom shall I fear?

The Lord is the stronghold of my life—
of whom shall I be afraid?

I look at the world engaging in fear but know that my God is always near.

For through the clouds and beyond the dark,
the Light of the Lord does away with the stark.

Salvation given with Love and for all,
gives assurance to me I'll be caught when I fall.
God offers me shelter in times of distress and God's peace like a dove gives my soul needed rest.

For the Lord IS my light, assuring all will be well,
when I allow myself in the Lord's arms to dwell.
And the world will go on, with some times being rough...
But God is the rock that will keep my faith tough.

In hard and good times, scripture says so...
That God is God....what more need we know?
